A- Nicely written and edited essay. Spend a little more time analyzing and discussing quotations that you've selected. Include page numbers as well. Your comparison of Elena, Lina, and Mrs. Arvydas reveals in-depth thought and effectively explores the ways that three different personalities react to isolation and trauma. Your integration of specific moments from text support your claims well. The conclusion is clear and insightful, and goes beyond BSG themes to the larger world. Nicely conceived and strong attention to detail overall.
