① When were the best times of your life?

- hard answer click.

② Most parents gush about kids (heartbeat, 1st words, 1st steps)

③ My mother's answer: nothing abt her kids

③ Talked about her days in high school and college. ^{smile}

Main point

④ From her bitter-sweet memories, I decided that if one day a time travel machine were invented, my 1st stop = ^{urban} China in the early 1980s → not just to experience "Golden days" but witness China's comeback.

Moving through the cluttered streets of urban China, → buses & bicycles

• ^{patches} red ⇒ brighter colors to show individuality

• bell bottoms

• times of reform and hope → recover from CR ^{↳ sense of fashion}

• Cultural Revolution 1966-1976 ⇒ disastrous ^(Mao's 20 years)

① denounced traditions practiced for hundreds of generations

② banned books

③ enc. youth to erase "impurities" w/ violent methods

(3)

⇒ Thus, 1980s = time of recovery & reforms as Pres. Deng articulated in his econ. reform program.

① decollectivization of agriculture

② opening up to foreign businesses

③ permission for entrepreneurs to start own businesses

so budding businesses everywhere.

(4)

◦ Despite the optimistic ambiance → ^{most} people still poor.
◦ greater variety of food, but most could only afford basic necessities of life → lived frugally in small apartments

⇒ dreamers

◦ Education!!

As a student - ranked

- reopened colleges w/ ^{less than} 10% admittance rate

College → viewed as an honor & privilege → successful future

◦ Activities

- nature surrounding the cities

- books & movies → ^{planned}

- mention western stuff & TV

Revelations.

(5)

① Through my adventures in this time period of reform and hope, I believe I would more comprehensively understand the hardships my parents had to endure & learn to appreciate their efforts more

◦ ② - work hard / study hard → college, $ to immigrate to Am., jobs in

③ My experience in the cities of 1950s China = ^{future} me more appreciative ^{this} foreign ^{country} of present → 24/7 entertainment & tech & splurge on material desires

- could not do that in 1980s

Despite better conditions today, my mother still views the past w/ rose colored glasses.

raises question ^{of} why? why would one appreciate the past more when their life in the present is so much better?

◦ Hopefully → not b/c I'm a terrible child ~~but~~

◦ Perhaps this is a question that only she can answer with her precious memories and feelings that she holds so dearly.
